Special to The Public Ledger.

FRANKFORT, April 16th.

As stated in this dispatch yesterday five of the bolting Republicans stand ready to vote for Martin, Democrat, for United States Senator.

There were three ballots today—closing with the forty eighth—and on each Dr. Hunter received 58 votes, just 2 short of an election.

The Henry M. Stanley will pass down tomorrow from Charleston.

The Hudson with a light trip came in early from Pittsburgh, and discharged quite liberally for Maysville merchants. She returns tonight for Pittsburgh.

Captain Chris Young, the well-known riverman, died yesterday morning at his home in Portsmouth. He owned the steamer Paris C. Brown, which burned on the lower Mississippi 10 years ago, and the Rainbow, which burned at the Cincinnati Wharf about eight years ago.

Slight changes have occurred in the river stages. Ohio from Pittsburgh to mouth of Kanawha is slightly rising and from there to Louisville is falling with 30 at this point. It will continue to fall here until tonight. Licking is running out rather freely and will help to swell the lower Ohio. Tennessee, Cumberland, Missouri are rising.

OUR WASHINGTON MAN.

THE LEDGER'S SPECIAL LETTER FROM THE CAPITAL.

Special Correspondence Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, April 16th, 1897.

Tariff and Bimetallism—those two great issues of the campaign—have been prominently at the front during the present week in Washington.

And those people who doubted or professed to doubt the sincerity of the professions of the Republican party on either of these subjects have found that they were mistaken.

A thoroughly Protective Tariff, one which looks after the interests of the farmer and the workingman—that is what the new Dingley Act is to be when it gets upon the statute books—what it is in fact today, for the probabilities are that it will be little changed by the Senate.

Earnest and intelligent efforts in behalf of international bimetallism—that is what this week's work means upon that subject. The appointment of the commission, whose names have already been given the public, assures prompt, vigorous, and, it is hoped, successful work.

THE BIMETALLIC COMMISSION.

The appointment of Senator Wolcott of Colorado, ex-Vice-President Stevenson of Illinois, and Hon. C. J. Paine of Massachusetts, as commissioners to pave the way for an international conference has been cordially commended. Until this week nobody knew definitely what the President's plans were in regard to this question. It was known that he was extremely anxious to take the proper steps towards carrying out the pledge of the party looking to international consideration of the silver question, but just how he proposed to bring this about or to take the initiative nobody was able to say. It now appears that, as usual, he has chosen the wise plan, and one most likely to be successful. Not only has he chosen the plan most likely to be successful, but the one likely to be most successful. By this is meant that if he is able to carry out the plans thus inaugurated the international conference will be brought to the doors of every American voter. President McKinley's hope is that it may be practicable to hold this conference in the United States and in the city of Washington. If this shall happen every American citizen will have the full benefit of the discussion which there arises. It will be as though the meeting of the representatives of the great Nations was brought to his own doorway. With press associations carrying the full proceedings of the conference, and the hundreds of special correspondents in Washington commenting upon the proceedings in the papers which they represent, every citizen who feels the slightest interest in this question would be able to follow the proceedings and study them in their proper light, thus knowing for himself that the work was well done.

The commissioners who are to go abroad to try to bring about an agreement for a conference are highly commended by members of all parties as especially judicious selections. Mr. Wolcott, by reason of his long study of the question and discussion on two previous trips abroad of this same subject, will be of much greater value than any man who had not had these experiences; ex-Vice President Stevenson, representing the silver element of the Democracy and well known by reputation and in person abroad, will instantly command attention; while Mr. Paine, as a close student of this subject, will prove equally useful and influential. It does not follow that these men who are selected for this work are to be the representatives of the United States in an international conference if they are successful in bringing one about; on the contrary, it is expected that other men will be selected to represent the Government in that conference.

THE TARIFF.

The people who are assuming that the Tariff Bill is likely to drag through the summer and keep the business of the country in an unsettled condition awaiting final action are to be disappointed. The next week or ten days at the furthest are likely to see the bill perfected by the Republican members of the Finance Committee and it is likely to get into the Senate before the month ends. Prospects now seem to be good for a final vote upon it in June and its completion in time that it may go into effect at the beginning of the fiscal year July 1st.

The changes made by the Senate Committee are much less in extent and importance than had been expected. The pressure for a reduction in the duties on wool has not been successful thus far, and the chances seem to be that they will not be. The demand of the Sugar Trust for changes in the schedule advantageous to them has been promptly rejected. The wail of the Standard Oil Trust and of sundry other corporations of this character have passed unnoticed. Those Democrats and Populists and other enemies of the Republican party who had hoped to be able to make political capital by charging that the Tariff Bill was favorable to corporations and trusts are disappointed. And they will continue to be disappointed.

TROUBLE IN THE DEMOCRATIC CAMP.

While things are moving on smoothly with the Republicans, there is trouble among the Democrats. The breach between the Bailey and the Bryan factions in the House has been widened, and the Populist allies of that party have been given the cold shoulder. The sockless Simpson, finding himself fast losing the notoriety which his eccentricities have awarded him, developed a new freak and attacked Speaker Reed because of his failure to appoint committees when committees were not needed. The Bryan wing of the Democracy, being so accustomed to co-operating with the Populists, wanted to support Jerry, but the Bailey wing opposed it. Mr. Bailey, who last fall opposed the consolidation of the Populist and Democratic party in the campaign, retains the same views to day and put them into practical operation. As the leader of the Democratic side of the House, he called a caucus at once, and by a vote of two to one adopted a resolution declining co-operation with Simpson and his followers, thus again defeating the Bryanites in their attempt to control the Democracy in the House.
